

© BfÖ 2016

Program

The European International Law Tradition: The German, Austrian and Italian contribution

Prof. Peter Hilpold, University of Innsbruck
Prof. Giuseppe Nesi, University of Trento
Prof. Hannes Hofmeister, University of Bozen-Bolzano

Euregio Mobility Project

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI
DI TRENTO

Freie Universität Bozen
Libera Università di Bolzano
Università Ljedia de Butsan

EUREGIO Mobility Fund

January 2017
Universität Innsbruck
Innrain 52, 6020 Innsbruck

Monday, 9 January 2017

Welcome address by the Dean of the Law Faculty of Innsbruck
Christian Markl

Heribert Franz Köck, University of Linz
The "Austrian School of International Law" - The influence of Austrian international lawyers on the formation of the present international legal order"
15.30-17.00 UNO-Saal, Zi 1119

Elisa Baroncini, University of Bologna

The development of International Economic Law - The Italian contribution
14.00-15.30 HS G

Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann, European University Institute, Florence
The development of International Economic Law - The contribution of German speaking countries
16.00-18.00 HS G

Thursday, 26 January 2017

Lauri Mälksoo, University of Tartu, Estonia
The European International Law Tradition: what is it?
10.00-12.00 HS 1

Carlo Focarelli, University of Perugia, LUISS Roma
The concept of International Law - The Italian perspective
13.30-15.00 HS 1

Christian Tomuschat, Humboldt University Berlin
The concept of International Law - The German perspective
15.45-17.45 HS 1

Saturday, 28 January 2017

Hannes Hofmeister, University of Bozen-Bolzano
International Law and International Relations – The German contribution
9.00-10.30 HS F

Giuseppe Nesi, University of Trento
Jurisdictional immunities as customary law and the protection of fundamental rights in national legal systems
11.00-12.30 HS F

Stephan Wittich, University of Vienna
International adjudication under particular consideration of International Criminal Justice - The Austrian contribution
14.00-15.30 HS F

Friday, 27 January 2017

Marco Pertile, University of Trento
The sources of International Law - The Italian perspective
8.30-10.30 HS F

Stefanie Bock, University of Marburg
International adjudication under particular consideration of International Criminal Justice - The German contribution
16.00-17.30 HS F

Antonino Ali, University of Trento
The interaction between international law and domestic law: The Italian approach
11.00-12.30 HS F